A Message from Mrs. Halicki

As the Golden Eagle boys and the Lady Golden Eagles basketball teams continue their journey to state, there will be a scheduled pep rally on Thursday, March 9th to celebrate the girls and boys basketball team. We are very proud of these young ladies and gentlemen and want to show our KC pride.

All school mass is usually on Thursdays, but will be rescheduled in order for the school to spread some Kennedy Catholic Family support.

What's Happening This Week

3.6–Regular Schedule

3.7- Mass 7:30 in chapel

3.8-Mass 1:30 in gymnasium

3.9 –Pep Rally 8th period in gymnasium
(Follow regular schedule)

3.10 – No School
Teacher In-service

Dress Down- There will be a “Dress Like Your Teacher” contest on Thursday, March 9th during the Pep Rally. Students dressing like a teacher will have a free dress down day. Students who are not dressing like a teacher will pay $1 for jeans and $2 for sweats. We encourage everyone to dress like their teacher and have some fun! If students plan on dressing like their teacher, please follow the guidelines for student clothing (Pages 5-6 in handbook) and do not over exaggerate or be disrespectful. The teachers will choose the student who looks the most like them to win!

KC Boys Basketball- We wish Coach Rick Mancino and the Golden Eagle boys basketball team good luck as they head into PIAA playoffs. I applaud these young men for their perseverance and dedication.

KC Girls Basketball- Congratulations to Coach Justin Magestro and the Lady Golden Eagles for winning the District 10 2A championship. We are very proud of these young ladies and wish them luck on their state journey.
