A Note From Mrs. Tiefenthal

It's hard to believe that it is already April! The year is flying by. We officially will begin the 4th quarter this week.

Thank you to all the families who attended our March Events! The 3rd/6th grade Student Showcases were amazing! The students enjoyed sharing their State Projects and Poems with all who attended. We are looking forward to our April events here at SJPII.

I wish you all a Blessed Easter with your loved ones as we celebrate the most important season of the Church year.

Important Information

Report Cards: The 3rd grading quarter is officially over. Report cards will be coming home this Wednesday with students in Kindergarten through Sixth grade. Absenteeism and tardiness reminders will be included for students who are over or close to reaching the allotted number of days per the KCFS parent/ student handbook. Please sign the front of the report card envelope and return to the classroom teacher. You may keep all the other documents for your records. Thank you!

1:30 Dismissal- Please make arrangements for prompt pick-up this Wednesday as we have a 1:30 dismissal. The school office will be closed at 2:00pm for Easter Break and resume normal office hours on Tuesday, April 11th.

SJPII Exciting News: Please join me in welcoming Mrs. Kaylee Caldwell to our SJPII family! Mrs. Caldwell will be covering Mrs. Chelsea Rice's maternity leave in third grade. We are excited to have Mrs. Caldwell join us! We are sending our love and prayers to Mrs. Rice and her family as they prepare to welcome their new bundle of joy! God Bless!

Reminders
