Week of: Nov.6-Nov. 10

A Message from Mrs. Halicki

With the end of the first nine-week grading period, parents, please keep in mind that teachers are scheduling conferences Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. Email teachers to request a conference. If you are unavailable these days, please reach out to teachers to make other arrangements.

With the start of the second nine-week grade period, parents and students please try to continually monitor Gradelink to ensure that all assignments are current and updated. Please email the specific teachers with any questions or concerns.

Conferences- Since the first nine-week grading period has ended on Friday, Nov 3, 2023, there will be an opportunity to schedule individual conferences with teachers on Thursday, November 9th from 2:00-4:00PM and Friday, November 10th in the morning from 8:00-10:00AM. Parents may either schedule in person or virtual conferences. Please contact the teachers to schedule a 15 minute block of time to discuss your child's progress. Teachers will send out verification of the time to parents.

Veteran's Day Program-We are hosting a Veteran's Day celebration on November 9th for our KCHS family members in the KCHS gymnasium. We will celebrate the men and women in our school family who served our country with a program featuring songs, prayers, and presentations.

Sr. Margaret Thanksgiving Drive-Just a reminder that the Thanksgiving food drive runs through November 15th. The grade that donates the most items per person will receive a pizza party in the month of December.

KCFS PTO Candy Sale- The Daffins Candies Christmas sale runs from Nov 1- Nov 17th. Information was emailed previously. There is also a flyer in the main office.
